we are
FAY &
SEAN AND BENJAMIN, TOO!

HELLO FROM NORTH CAROLINA

Thank you so much for taking the time to learn a little about us. We greatly admire your strength and compassion in considering open adoption. In 2014, our beautiful son Benjamin came into our lives through open adoption. His birthmother is very dear to us and we stay in close contact with her.

Please know that we would be overjoyed to welcome you into our family as well.

Fay, Sean & Benjamin

We met when Fay was visiting Seattle, Washington, to attend an exhibit on natural horse training. We clicked from the very start and it wasn't long before we became a couple. We have been married over 11 years and have built a solid relationship.

"WE ARE HAVING THE TIMES OF OUR LIVES WITH BENJAMIN AND CAN'T WAIT TO EXPAND OUR FAMILY."

We enjoy spending time together in the backyard where we roll the soccer ball, blow bubbles and play with trucks in the garden. We can't wait to have another child join the excitement! We also share our lives with our 3 cats Koshka, Gabriel and Guinness as well as our horse Tango.

In this home there is love

We live in the beautiful state of North Carolina. Our town has several shops that are very charming. At Christmas time, the entire downtown transforms into a magical place with lights and decorations. Our neighborhood is safe and has many excellent schools, playgrounds and churches. Horses are a large part of the community and there is always a horse show to attend. Our horse, Tango, lives in a pasture very close to our house. We often walk with Benjamin in the evenings to take Tango carrots. We are looking forward to watching our next child enjoying the experience of feeding Tango as well.

Fay (THROUGH SEAN'S EYES)

I love Fay for her loving and compassionate nature. She is the ultimate mom, athletic and energetic. Whether it is kicking around a soccer ball, building with blocks or visiting the horses, Benjamin always has a great time. Fay is self-employed and sets her own schedule so she can spend as much time with Benjamin as possible. She loves Saturday cartoons, playing with toy race cars and blowing bubbles each day for Benjamin. I know she will be so happy to welcome another child into our family.

Sean (THROUGH FAY'S EYES)

Sean is an incredibly supportive and caring husband who always puts family first. His job is very family friendly and he has lots of time off for activities, doctor's appointments and travel. He is a very dedicated dad who loves playing hide and seek as well as reading books and building monster trucks with Legos. I know he can't wait for another child to love!

A note from Courtney (Benjamin's birthmother)

First I'd like to commend you on your choice to consider adoption; it's a huge decision and one that I know you must have tossed around in your mind many times. I have been in your shoes and want to say I'm proud of you for getting this far. Despite our own unique situations, we were led to the same place, and now you are deciding what it is you want most for your little one.

I couldn't have made a better choice and am so proud of the parents they have become. These past two years have flown by and Fay and Sean have continuously kept me updated with photos, messages and even had us over for family dinners more times than I can count. They are amazing parents to Benjamin and I can honestly say I have never thought twice about choosing them. I want you to know how each day I can wake up knowing that he is safe, provided for and most importantly, loved unconditionally. Every time I see them I am filled with joy being able to see such a special bond that little happy boy, with those chubby cheeks, has with his mommy and daddy.

I am overjoyed with the idea of Benjamin having a baby brother or sister and I know how blessed Fay and Sean are to have the opportunity to expand their love to another child. Please don't hesitate to pick up your phone and call them or even myself if you have any questions during your search for the perfect family.

You have probably scanned through so many letters AND HAPPENED UPON THIS wonderful family; and let me tell you, they are EVERY BIT OF THAT WORD: WONDERFUL.

WE ARE EXCITED TO MEET YOU!

Our special friends and family

Our families live in Texas and Washington State and we love going to visit as much as possible. Fay's older sister and brother both have 2 children each so Benjamin has lots of older cousins to get into mischief with. Benjamin is absolutely adored by the whole family and everyone is excited about our second adoption!

Both of our families and friends are ready to surround us with unending love and support as we welcome our next child into our lives.

THANK YOU SO MUCH FOR READING OUR LETTER AND LEARNING A LITTLE ABOUT OUR FAMILY.

Every day we are amazed at the joy we feel as parents and are looking forward to welcoming our next child into our lives. From Sunday school to college graduation and beyond, we will always encourage our children to do their best to achieve their goals and dreams.

We look forward to getting to know you and sharing your hopes and dreams for the future!

With much love,
Fay, Sean & Benjamin
